Course Description - What is the course about?

Honing and developing ceramic skills already learnt on the Ceramics for Beginners' course.

What can you expect to achieve by the end of the course?

You will be encouraged to enhance existing ceramic skills and learn new ones by working through tutor led projects or your own individual projects. You will learn how to develop work from initial design ideas and transform them into ceramic pieces. You will create several pieces of work to take home.

What level is this course?

This is for learners who have already developed basic ceramics skills.

Is this course externally accredited?

N/A

Is any previous knowledge/experience/qualification needed?

You will need to have attended our Ceramics for Beginners course, or have equivalent skills and experience in ceramics.

Will I be expected to do homework?

Generally no, but you may be asked to do some research for project work.

How will I be taught? How will learning be assessed?

You will be taught mainly by practical demonstration with some formal presentation.

What will I need to bring to each lesson?

Notebook and pencil/pen.

Will I need to purchase any materials?

No.

Are there any additional costs after enrolment?

No, all resource costs are included.

Can I join the course later in the term?

Yes, depending on whether places are available.

What progression opportunities are available?

You can continue your studies by enrolling on Ceramics Advanced or one of our specialised courses; your tutor will help you to decide. For further information on all our courses see our website at www.newdirectionsreading.ac.uk
